United Way of Blount County is:

LOCAL

Your contribution impacts the lives of 1 in 3 people in need right here in Blount County.

EXPERT

United Way's priorities reflect our community's changing needs. Trained volunteers study those needs and focus resources on the most vulnerable.

ACCOUNTABLE

Financial transparency and lasting impact are important to United Way. Funding decisions are made by community volunteers after extensive program reviews.

EFFICIENT

Hundreds of volunteers assist in the annual campaign, allowing United Way to keep overhead low.

Thank you for your generous support!

United Way of Blount County is a nonprofit organization exempt from income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and provides supporting services and other assistance to public and private agencies and community organizations to meet the human service needs of the general public of Blount County. UWBC is a local autonomous organization governed by a local board of directors and operates under a charitable solicitation permit issued by the State of Tennessee. UWBC pays annual dues of 0.15% to United Ways of Tennessee and 1% to United Way Worldwide. Based on a 3-year average, UWBC deducts 11.8% of the total amount pledged to UWBC and its community partners to cover fundraising and administrative costs. UWBC does not charge a fee for processing and distributing designated pledges, but budgets 5.5% to cover uncollectible pledges and pays designated pledges based on the amount that is actually collected.
