United Way of Blount County is a nonprofit organization exempt from income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and provides supporting services and other assistance to public and private agencies and community organizations to meet the human service needs of the general public of Blount County. UWBC is a local autonomous organization governed by a local board of directors and operates under a charitable solicitation permit issued by the State of Tennessee. UWBC pays annual dues of 0.15% to United Ways of Tennessee and 1% to United Way Worldwide. Based on a 3-year average, UWBC deducts 12.8% of the total amount pledged to UWBC and its community partners to cover fundraising and administration costs. UWBC does not charge a fee for processing and distributing designated pledges, but budgets 5.5% to cover uncollectible pledges and pays designated pledges based on the amount that is actually collected. United Way does not provide goods or services in whole or partial consideration for any contributions made to United Way.

United Way of Blount County unites people and resources to build a stronger, healthier, and more accessible community for the benefit of all.

UNITED WAY OF BLOUNT COUNTY

2024

A disabled widow living alone, Mrs. Johnson found her Blount County home falling apart. Her porch was rotten. Moisture and pests came in through damaged siding. The electrical system was dangerous. Her bathroom was inaccessible.

She felt helpless but also suspicious of anyone offering help. After developing a trusting relationship, United Way of Blount County's community partner completed the repairs her home desperately needed. Feelings of safety and confidence replaced her helplessness and skepticism. United Way donors gave Mrs. Johnson the gift of independence with a safe, accessible home.

WHEN WE TAKE ACTION TOGETHER, WE CAN CREATE CHANGE FOR ALL.

For 70 years, United Way of Blount County has partnered with our local community to co-create solutions to people's most pressing challenges. We bring a comprehensive approach to every issue, actively listening and responding to local needs. From strengthening local resilience to advancing health, education, and self-sufficiency, UWBC mobilizes our community to action so all can thrive.
