

ALICE IN BLOUNT COUNTY

THE NEED IN BLOUNT COUNTY

Financial insecurity leads to...

- Working families struggling to pay rent and utilities.
- Children without safe afterschool childcare.
- Seniors lacking nutritious food and in-home caregiving.
- Teenagers without high-quality substance misuse treatment.
- Children with developmental delays without early intervention.

82% of programs awarded grants by UWBC focus on supporting financially insecure neighbors.

MEDIA SPONSORS

United Way of Blount County is a nonprofit organization exempt from income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and provides supporting services and other assistance to public and private agencies and community organizations to meet the human service needs of the general public of Blount County. UWBC is a local autonomous organization governed by a local board of directors and operates under a charitable solicitation permit issued by the State of Tennessee. UWBC pays annual dues of 0.29% to United Ways of Tennessee and 1.4% to United Way Worldwide. Based on a 3-year average, UWBC deducts 13.9% of the total amount pledged to UWBC and its community partners to cover fundraising and administration costs. UWBC does not charge a fee for processing and distributing designated pledges, but budgets 5.5% to cover uncollectible pledges and pays designated pledges based on the amount that is actually collected. United Way does not provide goods or services in whole or partial consideration for any contributions made to United Way.

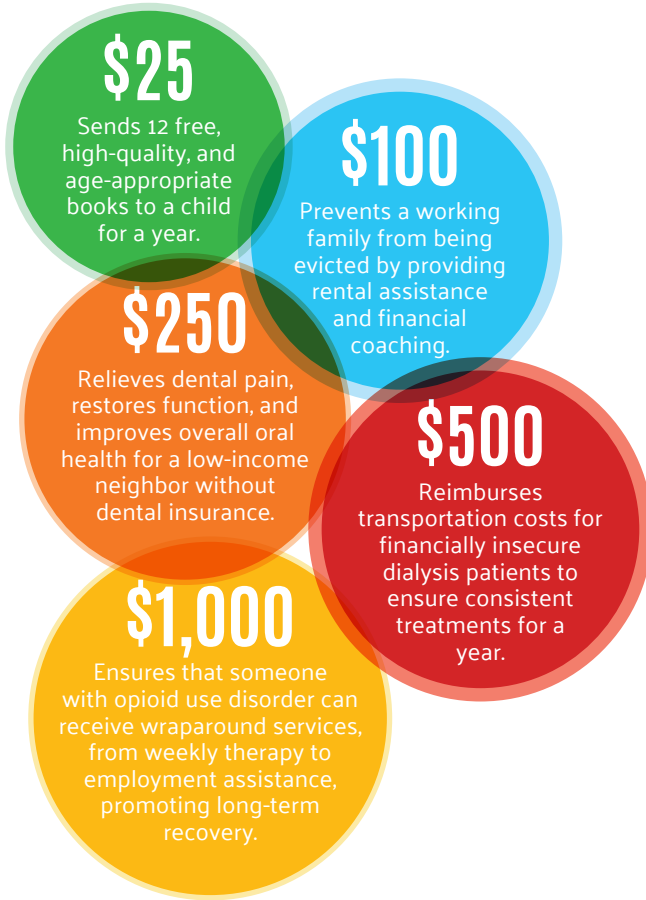

OUR WHY IS YOU

2026

WHAT YOUR DOLLAR CAN DO

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Uniting people and resources to build a stronger, healthier, and more accessible community for the benefit of all.

At United Way of Blount County, our “WHY” is simple, it’s YOU!

ERIN & SHELLIE

“We’re just extremely grateful... We receive so much [support] from our community, but it’s really important to us to give back.”

JAINA
“To me, supporting neighbors through United Way means being part of something bigger than ourselves.”

TRAVIS
“I can say firsthand, working with United Way of Blount County and the opportunity to change [dialysis patient’s] lives and what we’ve been able to accomplish this year, they make a difference.”

JARED
“When we come together on our days off to serve our community through different organizations, it makes a huge impact to the people in our community that are most vulnerable.”

NICHOLE
“If we didn’t have United Way, I think we would have a lot of families that would really struggle to make just the everyday ends meet in Blount County.”

AMANDA
“I’ve seen that United Way of Blount County can help everyone thrive and live to their best potential, not just one time, but for sustainable long-term impacts.”

At United Way of Blount County, connecting neighbors to the resources they need isn’t just what we do... It’s who we are. With your help, we can reach more families, open more doors, and create more moments of hope - right here at home.
